- ◆ Type of service provided
- ◆ Source of funding
- ◆ Admission requirements
- ◆ Languages spoken
- ◆ Address
- ◆ Phone and fax
- ◆ Office hours
- ◆ Region served

USED DAILY BY A VARIETY OF PROFESSIONALS

People in a wide range of service organizations have found the Rainbow Guides essential to their jobs, with many telling us they open their Guides every workday.

- ◆ Educators
- ◆ Government offices
- ◆ Healthcare professionals
- ◆ Law enforcement personnel
- ◆ Psychologists
- ◆ Addiction treatment centers
- ◆ Senior centers
- ◆ Social workers

“The Rainbow Guide is the one source that we use on a daily basis.”

Theresa Murphy,
Precious Life Shelter

Where people in need can find free or inexpensive food, shelter, medicine, jobs, counseling, and more.

WHY DO WE CALL THEM RAINBOW GUIDES?

Just like a rainbow delights viewers with its color spectrum, our directories deliver the full range of social services. Virtually every category of social welfare organization — from adoption to youth shelters — is comprehensively covered with dozens of local listings.

Each listing contains about 15 lines of concisely delivered “what and where” information: the service provided, region served, admission requirements, languages spoken, address and phone, and more.

“The Rainbow Guides are a critical tool for locating social services. We use them every day.”
 Arthur Romo,
 Substance Abuse Foundation

“I don't know what I'd do without the Rainbow Guide. It is our lifeline to other agencies and organizations.”
 Mary Weaver,
 Friends Outside in Los Angeles County
 Customer Since 1993
